PM to kick-start countrywide Gandhi Jayanti celebrations

From Prime Minister Narendra Modi who will kickstart the countrywide events, to politicians of all hues, and commoners, the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on Wednesday will see celebrations across the country, with blood donation camps being held and large-sized photos of Gandhi emblazoned across trains and hoardings.

Gandhi will lead a Gandhi Sankalp Yatra as part of a week-long celebration to mark the 150th birth anniversary. The yatra will start at 9.30 a.m. from the Delhi Pradesh Congress Committee office.

On Wednesday, Prime Minister Modi will visit Rajghat, the resting place of the Father of the Nation, at 7.30 a.m. He will also visit Vijayghat, the resting place of former PM Lal Bahadur Shastri, who also shares his birthday with Gandhi.

Modi will go to the Parliament where he will pay floral tributes to both the leaders. Later in the evening, he is to fly to Ahmedabad and visit the Sabarmati Ashram. The PM, who launched the Sakshat Bharat campaign on October 2 in 2014, in recognition of Gandhi, will take part in an event for cleanliness there.

BJP President and Home Minister Amit Shah will address a small gathering in Delhi's Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya where he will flag off a Gandhi Sankalp Yatra from the Rasthela Maidan there.

Congress leaders, led by Union Ministers R.K. Singh and Prakash Javadekar, BJP Working President J.P.

With this spirit that I urge you all to register on the national App A on @BharatGov. Pledge to donate blood atleast once a year", he tweeted.

In Uttar Pradesh, the Yogi Adityanath government is to hold a special evening session on Gandhi Jayanti. However, opposition parties have decided to boycott this session.

In Hyderabad, BJP leaders are to pay homage to Mahatma Gandhi at Bagu Dhat in the morning and then launch a Pralayayatra from Saran Chouk, Khairatabad, Hyderabad.

NCC cadets on Tuesday concluded their cycle expedition at Pottuluri, Suggur, ahead of Gandhi Jayanti.

On Wednesday, the government is expected to announce a ban on single-use plastics to mark the day. Many schools and colleges held functions on Tuesday to mark Gandhi Jayanti and Wednesday is a holiday.

Besides political functions, several localities and organisations have planned functions to mark the day. Many schools and colleges held functions on Tuesday to mark Gandhi Jayanti and Wednesday is a holiday.

Monaco to launch Gandhi stamp

French-ruled principality Monaco has announced issuance of postage stamps on Mahatma Gandhi on his 150th birth anniversary on October 2.

Printed at 2.10 euros, 40,000 stamps will be on sale from October 2 at the office des 'Timbres', the Musée des 'Timbres et des Monnaies'. The post offices and philatelic societies of the principality said.

"It will be included, with other values, in the second part of the thematic programme 2019 we offered to our subscribers and customers", it added.

Each in August, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has released postage stamps on Mahatma Gandhi to commemorate his 150th birth anniversary in Abu Dhabi in the presence of Union Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee.

This year, India is celebrating the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi whose values of peace, tolerance and sustainability continue to be relevant and guide the world.

UK Jains visit Jain temple in Antwerp, Belgium

Following recent conclusion of Jain festival parjuman, South East Jain Association from Crawley organised a pilgrimage trip to Jain cultural Center in Antwerp during the weekend of 7th-8th September 2019.

The excursion was a coach trip with 33 members and included many activities. The temple hosts Ishwarihar Bhawan Shree Jhankhleswar Parvathi as a murti. During the visit members had opportunity to perform seva.

numbers and a quiz on various topics. Moreover a number of members supported the organising committee on various occasions promoting spirit of unity and sewa. The group returned to Crawley on 05th September evening with a lot of sweet memories.

The temple located in the Leuvenhof of Antwerp beholds a sacred piece of India within it. Over the past few decades, the city has seen many Jains settled and living their lives here. The temple is somewhat a reflection of their identity.

During the trip a number of members participated in singing Jain shloka, Bollywood and more than that, a reflection of the sentiments of unity among Jains. The magnificent temple is not only one of the largest of its kind in Europe but also depicts the various aspects of this religion. Built by native Jain descendants, the starting structure in the ruins of years of hard work, dedication and faith. A few hours spent amidst its spiritual ambience is some thing you will never experience.
